THE NEGRO MEMBER.

It now seems that the negro Menard, whom we have heretofore mentioned as being in Washington as a Representative in Congress of the Louisiana blacks, when indeed no Louisiana negro at all, but a mere carpet-bagging mulatto interloper from Illinois, is an old hand at his present business. In October, 1865, as appears from Diplomatic correspondence, Vol. 1., pp. 37, 114, 115 for 1868, this fellow was prominent in those troubles among the negro population of Jamaica which resulted about that time in those bloody massacres which the British government found necessary to repress with great severity. Being detected in the possession of speeches and letters breathing the most venomous hostility to the whites on the island, and openly instigating bloodshed by declaring himself "for black nationalities," he was, on recommendation of the clerk of the peace in the parish where his instigations to violence were most frequent, deported from the island as a turbulent incendiary and make-bate. On this he besieged the State Department for redress of alleged injuries, but, the facts appearing from the diplomatic correspondence which ensued as above stated, the matter was dropped by Mr. Seward; and the next appearance of this pestilent creature was on the Louisiana reconstruction stage. In the evolution of this scoundrel drama, he now presents himself as a Representative in the Congress of the United States, and, in verification of his right to a seat as such, presents, under what is called the broad seal of Louisiana, a certificate of election from the prowling white Illinois adventurer who styles himself Governor of that State.

Such is reconstruction. We beg the reader to think for a moment on that peculiar phase of it here presented. White carpet-bagging is pretty well understood; but here is an instance of that system of negro carpet-bagism invoked, as we have several times mentioned, by Congress to its additional aid in the accomplishment of its base and rotten design. This fellow is but a type of those Northern negroes who, put under pay by Radical managers, have been sent to the South to play the role of constitution-makers, legislators, State officers, and members of Congress, under pretence of being fair representatives of the lately emancipated slaves. While observing this purpose of their masters, it is not be supposed but that they have also, on their own account, frequently pursued the same course as was pursued by Menard in Jamaica; and in such case it will be well if, in the train of their incitements, we are not some day called on to meet the same state of things as Governor Eyre was called on to meet in the colony, which was only by fire and sword prevented from becoming another Liberia or Hayti.—N. Y. World.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

A good deal of experience has taught us that success in the poultry yard depends as much upon good general management as upon any one thing. When the eggs of any hens indifferently are kept for the purpose of raising young chickens, and when little attention is paid to the particular hens reserved for laying, it will in general be found that the profits are small, and the quality of fowls raised rapidly deteriorates.

In addition to the usual plan of selecting only the best formed and quietest hens for breeding purposes, we have found it of advantage to pay considerable attention to the age of the fowls which we retain. For the production of eggs for domestic consumption we never keep hens beyond their second year, but for raising chickens we have found it to be poor policy to employ eggs laid by hens less than two years old. We have always found that the chickens from the older hens are more easily raised, have stronger constitutions, and turn out every way better, than those raised from pullets' eggs.—The eggs consequently cost more, but this extra expense is but a small item on the number of eggs usually employed for hatching.

In order to have eggs during winter, besides the usual appliances of meat, lime, sand, bones, &c., we always make sure of having some very early chickens. The pullets of these will commence to lay in October, or November, and will lay throughout the winter. Next season we draft a few of the very best of these and keep them as breeders, the balance being fattened and killed off as soon as they have positively ceased laying. All this time it is wonderful how rapidly hens take on fat. We often see accounts of hens not laying because they are too fat. When considering the case with which hens fatten as soon as they cease laying for the season, we have often thought that the true way to state the case is that they fattened because they did not lay. At this age they are delightfully tender and juicy, and we would about as soon think of fattening a cow that gave twenty quarts of milk a day as to think of fattening a laying hen.—Country Gentlemen.

THE GRAPE MANIA.

We plead guilty to the charge of "vine mania," and in extenuation simply remark that to us a vine, like a beautiful woman, is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever." We are not alone in our weakness, for from the most remote period of antiquity the vine has been viewed as the type of plenty and the symbol of happiness. As the dog in the animal kingdom is the friend and companion of man, so may the vine among vegetable productions be said to be his associate and solace; for wherever the Caucasian race finds a home, there also will be found the vine, with its welcome shade and tempting clusters. Like man himself, the vine seems designed for cultivation and improvement; it is culture alone which develops the late powers and qualities, which, in its wilding habitat, are never called forth. Like a weak, dependent thing, we find it a native wood clinging for support to its fellow denizens of the forest, festooning their trunks and branches with its beautiful foliage, or hanging in long tangled masses from the lofty boughs. It is the capability of improvement by care and culture that calls forth in the true standard of nature a more than usual interest—we say affection—for the vine. From no other of the productions of the vegetable kingdom will his care and attention receive a more grateful and profitable return than from this, his interesting and pliant nurseling.—If the cultivation of Flora's gems has an ameliorating influence on the heart of man, removing his thoughts from the cankering cares of the world, the cultivation of the vine is pre-eminently fitted to solace and soothe his wearied spirits.—N. Y. Horticulturist.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country, which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Eackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

Policies Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000

Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

Gold closed in New York, on last evening, at 1.35f.

Cotton was quoted at 26@27.

North Carolina Bonds were quoted: New 60; old 62.

Allan Rutherford, Captain Co. D., 41th U. S. Colored Troops, Brevet Brigadier General, Sub-Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, and one of Holden's Squires for New Hanover County, is "setting his pegs" for the Postmastership of Wilmington.

The Goldsboro' Messenger continues to recite outrages by the negro troops in Goldsboro'. It says:

"Since the arrival of these negro troops among us, we have had nothing but disgust and broils, while ladies, at one time, dared not to venture on the streets. This is the case even now, whenever they are paid off. Forbearance ceases to be a virtue, sometimes, and the community are getting tired of gross insults and outrages that are being heaped upon them by a lawless negro soldiery."

Col. Jno. D. Whitford has retired from the Firm of Whitford, Dill & Co., of Newbern, and removed to New York. Success, Colonel!

There was a paper wedding (third anniversary) in Newbern, a few evenings since. Presents, consisting of books, stationery, pictures, and other appropriate articles, were freely bestowed.

Clinton D. Pierson, Amos York and Geo. B. Willis, all colored, were nominated by the Radicals, at a late Republican meeting in that city, as Trustees of the Newbern Academy. They have united in a card, most commendably, declining to serve, on the ground that the Institution is a school for white children only,—thereby rebuking the scalawags who nominated them.

The two Pacific Roads are only 318 miles apart, which distance both Companies are building on, night and day. The two roads will probably meet in April.

Efforts are being made for the calling of a national Tobacco Convention to be held in Lynchburg, to take steps to relieve the tobacco trade of the present tax.

The Louisville Democrat says that the Hon. John C. Breckenridge is expected to return to Kentucky in a few days.

To witness Gen. Grant's inauguration every room in one of the largest hotels in Washington has been already engaged, and the proprietors were compelled to refuse at least two hundred other applicants.

A Cleveland negro has prosecuted the Directors of the skating rink in that city for not allowing him the civil right of departing in their building with white folks.

A strong effort, which is likely to prove successful, is now being made for the release of Dr Mudd from imprisonment at the Dry Tortugas.

The troubles with the negroes on the Ogeechee river, Ga., continue unabated. Another plantation has been destroyed, the owner's house burned and the crops destroyed. The negroes are well armed and in large force and seem determined to resist the authorities.

The Fifth Avenue Hotel New York, rents for $98,640 per annum. The St. Nicholas rents for $96,200. The New York Hotel is the third in the list and the Metropolitan is the fourth.

In 1861 the Israelites owned very little real estate in New York city, preferring to invest in other substantial properties. Now they are the chief owners of the land upon which the metropolis is constructed. There is scarcely a fashionable avenue or street in the upper part of New York where they do not hold the best sites. They pay the very largest prices for them, too.

PENITENTIARY.

On the 30th. of January, 1867, Governor Worth sent a message to the General Assembly, touching the condition of the State's interest in the Cape Fear and Deep River works. He recited that the interests of the Company were sold in 1859 and purchased by Gov. Ellis for the State, in pursuance of the act of 1858 59, at the sum of $365,000; that in compliance with the provisions of said act, which appropriated $100,009 more, to complete the works, Gov. Ellis, in his regular message of 1860, says that he appointed a Commission, as he was required to do by said act, and that "many useful repairs have been made, under the direction of this Commission, and the river has been opened for navigation, with a minimum depth of five feet of water from Fayetteville to the Gulf in the midst of the Coalfields, a distance of eighty-one miles. The navigation is temporarily suspended in consequence of an accident occasioned by a recent freshet, to which these works will be more or less subject, until substantially rebuilt. A report from the Commission giving a detailed account of their operations, will be laid before you at an early day, for which occasion I will reserve such suggestions relative to this improvement, as I may deem necessary to its maintenance."

The war was just about to break out at the date of this message, and it is probable that such report and suggestions were never made. Gov. Worth says, "if this report from the Commission, with the proposed suggestions of the Governor, was ever made, or any subsequent report by said Commission, I have been unable to find it."

Gov. Worth further says that it was understood that "in 1864 a new corporation had been created by the General Assembly under the name of the Deep River Transportation Company, and that the steamboats, tools and other property of the Navigation Company had been transferred to this Transportation Company, in consideration of the undertaking of this latter Company to keep up the navigation, and do transportation on the upper portions of the river." Col. J. M. Heck was the chief actor for this Transportation Company.—The records of the Commission and papers on file did not satisfactorily show whether this transfer had been made, but Governor Worth's investigations resulted in ascertaining that such transfer had been attempted to be made, but that the writings were informal and void, and consequently the title of the State in the property and franchises of the C. F. & D. R. Navigation Company was good.

Gov. Worth further says, "so far as the present Commissioners have been able to ascertain, the only property owned by the Company, at present, are a pump in Wilmington which cost $1,200, and is believed to be in good order, and the engines and machinery of two small steamboats, the hulls of the boats having become rotten and worthless. These engines are landed and under shelter near Buckhorn Falls. The Board of Commissioners have not a dollar of money under their control. They can do nothing to complete the navigation and they do not deem themselves authorized to sell the engines and machinery of the two boats or the pump, which they believe would bring a very inconsiderable sum, if sold."

In this message Gov. Worth represents that "the foundations of all the dams on these works are firm and sound,—and that all apprehensions, at one time entertained, that they would be undermined, by the fall of water over them, has passed away."

These messages of Gov. Ellis and Gov. Worth contain the latest and most authentic information before the public, in relation to this matter.

In this same message of Gov. Worth, which exhibits internal evidence of research to remove the cloud from the title of the State, occasioned by the supposed transfer of the State's interest to the Deep River Transportation Company, and consideration as to what was best to be done to turn to account the large and unfortunate expenditures of the State on these works, he suggests that the dam at Buckhorn Falls is believed to be in good order and the water power, at all seasons, sufficient to drive immense machinery,—and that, in consequence of the State already owning the dams, the abundant supplies of iron, coal, timber &c., in the vicinity, and the probability of accessibility being soon brought about by the extension of the Coalfield R. R. to the N. C. R. R., or the completion of the Chatham R. R., that these dams might be made available by erecting the Penitentiary there. His ideas seem to have been that convicts could be employed in raising coal and iron, and thus developing a vast resource of the State;—and that the water power, already dammed at the expense of the State, could be used in making Railroad iron, car wheels, &c., to supply any demand, or to manufacture anything else, requiring the use of iron and coal—and he advises, if these views be not approved, that the franchise and works should be sold, in the hope that capitalists would buy and complete the navigation.

Soon after Gov. Worth sent in this message the General Assembly took a recess—and the military despotism which was placed over us forbade their re assembling, whereby no action was taken in the premises; but this message was published, in full, in several of the leading papers of the State, and its facts and suggestions were known to everybody, trying to keep posted as to State affairs.

These quotations are made from the messages of Governors Ellis and Worth, as the latest authentic information before the public in relation to the interest of the State in these works. They were certainly of considerable value. If the coal, and iron, and copper mines in the valley of Deep River are ever to be developed—and the vast quarries of solid and laminated granite and sand stone which abound on the banks of these Rivers to be made available, these rivers must be made navigable; and the imperfect dams and locks now on them would afford great facilities in making better ones. If nothing better could be done, the franchise and improvements should have been sold. They are worth as much, if not more, than they were worth when Gov. Ellis purchased them for the State in 1859, with universal approbation, at $365,000,—the State having expended thereafter $100,000 more in trying to perfect the works.

In view of the facts Gov. Worth suggested this region as a suitable site for the Penitentiary, the State already owning this water power, ready dammed, and he afterwards sent the State Geologist to examine the coal and iron mines and stone quarries and the condition of these upper dams and report thereon. The State Geologist made such examinations and reported in writing, recommending Lockville as the most suitable site along the river for the Penitentiary. Here is a substantial stone lock, built at great cost, a good dam and abundant water power. No doubt was then entertained, or is now entertained, that a few acres more of land, all that is needed for a Penitentiary, could be purchased, at a very small price.

But to the amazement of every body who has heard of it, (few have heard of it,) the Radical Convention passed an ordinance, ratified the 15th. March, 1868, which, by its preamble, declares that "the Cape Fear and Deep River Works are in a ruinous condition; and in their present condition utterly worthless to the State, and highly injurious to the interests of the people residing in the valleys of said rivers,"—and then ordains:

SEC. 1st. That, for the purpose of aiding the Chatham Railroad Company, in the transportation of stone for building their bridges, culverts and other masonry, and for the carriage of material and supplies to points needed, the interest of the State of North Carolina in said Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Works, from the Gulf Dam on Deep River to Northing Dam on Cape Fear River, both inclusive, is hereby transferred to the Chatham Railroad Company, with liberty to said Company to repair, use, and make avail of, said portion of said works, and all franchises and privileges appertanent thereto, to the same extent as is possessed by the State.

SEC. 2. That the President and Directors of the Chatham Railroad Company shall have power to transfer and assign said interests herein conveyed and transferred, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of improving the valleys of said rivers.

In this Chatham Railroad Company the State owns no stock—and on the 11th. March, four days before giving away the State's interest in the Cape Fear and Deep River Works, the Convention passed an ordinance giving her credit to the amount of $1,200,000 to aid this Chatham Railroad Company to complete their enterprise.

It is reported that Col. J. M. Heck is largely interested in the Chatham Railroad; and that he, acting for his associates, was the prominent lobby member in getting through these two ordinances. By what means he could influence the Convention to make this absurd gift is not known. But of all or nearly all the rafting, imposed by these works, is below Northington, and only the dams above, including Northington, are given away, the ordinance is fraudulent and deceptive as to relieving the lumber men, and the provision inserted that the Chatham Railroad Company may sell or transfer the locks and dams and franchises on the upper portion of the works, makes it transparent that the design was to make these upper works tributary to the Chatham Railroad Company—and to disable the State ever to perfect the navigation of these rivers.

This gift of the locks and dams, and surrender of the privilege of using the river to transport coal and iron and building material, took away the considerations making Lockville an eligible site for the Penitentiary, and this without any benefit to the State.

It is said that the State pays some $8,000 for 25 acres of land on which to locate the Penitentiary, not including the water power, and $100,000 for 8,000 acres of poor pine land, some of which is some 15 miles distant from the site of the Penitentiary. Col. Heck buys this poor land of Dr. Jno. McKay at about 65 cents per acre, and immediately sells it to the State at $12 50 per acre. Why are he and his unknown associates such favorites of the powers that be? Everybody knows the Penitentiary has no use for an acre of this tract. Charity cannot so be stretched as to cover these transactions with the mantle of stupidity. This $100,000, distributed among the Ring, in any thing like an equal ratio, even if the Ring embrace all the members who have co-operated in this shameless villainy, would give to each of them a handsome sum. The annals of corrupt Legislation in no country exhibit any instance of peculation on the public funds, with so colorless a pretext.

It is taken for granted that the Penitentiary Committee did not secure the water power at Lockville. Under the terms of the gift to the Chatham R. R. Co., they could not transfer and assign this water power to the State for building a Penitentiary, but solely "for the purpose of improving the valleys of said Rivers."

The Ring looked too high to notice the steamboat machinery and pump? Has the Superintendent of Public Works looked after these—the only debris left,—of what cost the State some half a million of dollars? Does he despise such small matters? Residence in the Governor's Mansion, with the approval of the despot who rules by virtue of the U. S. bayonet and negro suffrage, and disfranchisement of better men, would turn the head of a more sensible man than C. L. Harris.

The honest members of the Legislature should at once bring forward a bill that the State bonds issued to carry out these villainous schemes were issued without the sanction of the Legislature, and that they will not be paid. The Treasurer's books will show the number and date of these bonds, and to whom issued, so that they may be identified. They were issued without authority of law, by the Governor and Public Treasurer, in hot haste, lest the General Assembly, to meet in a few days, should refuse to ratify this immense swindle!

CÆSAR AND GRANT.

About fifty years before the Christian Era, when Cæsar invaded and overran our British ancestors, after they had made a long, desperate and heroic defence, they broke right down, became utterly prostrate, without spirit or hope, and betook themselves to submission.

The ambassadors sent to sue for peace laid all the blame of the war upon the rash "young men," and claimed that they, nor the people, had share in carrying on the war.

Cæsar reproved them for their meanness and inconsistency, and required new hostages for THEIR fidelity and good behavior!

As General Grant has shown something of the Cæsar in overcoming us, and we something of the Britons, both in our manly resistance and our abject submission, it is to be hoped that Grant may maintain, still further, the character of the Roman, and reprove, for their meanness and inconsistency, our ambassadors, "Senator" Pool and "Governor" Holden, when they talk about making treason odious, after the one served as Elector for Jefferson Davis and the other had proposed to assassinate Lincoln, by asking, in his paper:

"Who will plot for the head of Abraham Lincoln?"

Yes, let Cæsar reprove them for their inconsistency and meanness.

"KILLING TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE." A racy correspondent of the Fayetteville Eagle, writing from this City, thinks that the crier of the Federal Court, Squire King, the Tailor, is an enterprising man. He says:

"I can vouch for this myself, as I had an ocular demonstration: As I entered the court room, what should I see but the crier plying his needle in the old fashioned way with a nimbleness and speed that would have put one of Wheeler & Wilson or Singer's best Double Lock Stitch to blush—upon what I learned to be a pair of pants. This department of the court is the only one that is keeping up with the "progressive age." He is following in the footsteps of Andy and no doubt expects to be President of these United States, which would be simply changing his crying for a United States Court, to crying for Congress.—As the court has set up one in the tailoring business, I think it would be a good plan to extend its "manufacturing interests" and set the marshal up in the saddlery business, and his deputies in the shoe making business."

SENSIBLE RESOLUTIONS.—The negroes in Perry county, Mississippi, have formed a Democratic club, and have adopted several resolutions, of which the following (copied from an exchange) are a sample:

1st. That the carpet baggers won't do, but that the Southern whites will.

2d. That the carpet baggers can't do, but that the Southern whites can.

3d. That the carpet-baggers can't be trusted, but that the Southern whites can.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Jan. 4, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock, M.,—the President, Mr. Caldwell, in the Chair.

The roll was called and Messrs. Cook, Purdie, Respess and Rich, only, answered to their names—4.

No quorum being present, the President declared the Senate adjourned until morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Jan. 4, 1869.

According to adjournment, the House was called to order at 12 o'clock,—Mr. Speaker Holden in the Chair.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following gentlemen were ascertained to be present, viz:

Messrs. Argo, Armstrong, Ashworth, Barnett, Barnes, Blair, Carson, Carey, colored, Cherry, colored, Downing, Ellington, Estes, Farrow, Gahagan, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hayes, colored, Hicks, Hodnett, Hudgings, Jarvis, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinney, Laflin, Leary, colored, Moring, Painter, Price, colored, Proctor, Ragland, Robinson, Reynolds, colored, Sinclair, Simonds, Stevens, Sweat, colored, Vest, Waldrop, Welch and Wiswall—41.

There being no quorum present, the House, after granting a leave of absence to Mr. French, and the use of the Hall to Prof. Doherty, to lecture on Thursday evening, on "Education and the use of applied sciences," adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

THE JEWISH SABBATH—A CASE FOR THE COURTS.—The case of David Cohan and William H. Fryce, the two men charged with selling liquor on Sundays, came up at Roxbury, Massachusetts, on Tuesday. The facts of the case are these: Cohan, being a Jew, claims that he has a right to, and admits that he does, keep open his store on Sundays. He defends himself by saying that the Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday, and ends at the same time on Saturday, and after that hour on Saturday, and all day Sunday he transacts business as usual. The charge of selling liquor was abandoned this morning, and another charge, that of keeping open the store on Sundays, was preferred against Cohan only. Judge Wheelock delivered the following decision:

"In my opinion, our statute, by the seventh day of the week, means nothing more or less, as we reckon civil time, than Saturday, from midnight to midnight. And as this defendant kept open his shop for the purpose of, and did transact, his usual secular business on the seventh day of the week, (Saturday,) he does not come within the exception of the statute, and could not keep open his shop for the purpose of transacting business on the Lord's Day, as alleged in this complaint. He must therefore be adjudged guilty, and I impose a penalty of ten dollars and costs."

The defendant appealed, and was held over in $100. The case excited the greatest interest in court, especially among members of the Jewish fraternity, a large number of whom were present.

Tribute of Respect.

At a called meeting of the North Carolinians at the University of Virginia, held Dec. 26th, 1868, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, It hath pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our beloved and respected fellow-student JAMES A. PRUDEN, whose conduct, while with us, was ever characterized by gentleness and nobleness of soul, which won for him the respect of all who knew him, and drew around him warm and devoted friends: Therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of God, whose ways are not for man to know, yet we cannot but be saddened and regret the death of our associate and friend, and would not refrain from rendering th t respect to this memory which his many virtues won

Resolved, That by the death of James N. Pruden, North Carolina has lost one of her most worthy representatives at the University of Virginia, and one whose youth gave promise of an honorable and useful manhood.

Resolved, That we tender to the family and friends of the deceased our heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of sorrow, offering them, as a consolation, our hope and belief that his life on earth has been shortened to lengthen his days of bliss in Heaven.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Raleigh Sentinel, Wilmington Journal and the University Magazine, and that a copy be forwarded to the family of the deceased.

MARRIED:

On Tuesday, Dec. 22nd, 1868, by the Rev. R. H Griffith, at the residence of the bride's father, GEORGE M. DASKIN, Esq., of Greensboro', Ala., and Miss HATTIE E. GLENN, daughter of Tyre Glenn, Esq., of Yadkin Co., N. C.

On the 31st ult., at St. John's Church, Fayetteville, by Rev. Jos. C. Hanke, Mr. E. B. STIWSON, of Iredell Co., to Miss EMMA B., daughter of the late samuel W. Tillinghast, of Fayetteville.

DIED:

In the vicinity of Hillsboro', on the night of the 28th of December, FREDERICK NASH, son of Francis N. and Elizabeth D. Waddell, in the 31st year of his age.

Struck in early manhood with the disease that terminated his existence, his life was one of comparative privacy, and hence those valuable and shining qualities which endeared him to his family and to those who knew him were in a great degree hidden from the public eye. An intellect quick and bright sought cultivation amid the pangs of disease or in the intervals of home duties, and his thirst for knowledge was slaked under fatigues and sufferings which would have deterred the minds of most from the pursuit of knowledge. Untiring in energy and industry, his success in life and the full development of his sterling qualities were only restrained by the long continued presence of disease. His moral character was irreproachable, his virtue untarnished, and his life was passed without contracting a single stain upon its unsullied purity. High toned, manly and generous, he scorned all that was mean and grovelling, and his impulses were all noble and elevated. He has left a name which will be always cherished by his sorrowing family as the embodiment of those qualities which make and adorn the man, and the remembrance of which will in some slight degree, mitigate the grief now so bitterly felt at his loss

BOUTWELL THE BUTT OF RIDICULE.—At the dinner given the other evening in New York to Professor Morse, the inventor of the electric telegraph, when the regular toast "to the management of the telegraph" was read, the President (Chief Justice Chase) called upon Attorney General Evarts "to bring some sparks from 'the hole in the sky' to illustrate this toast"—a remark which, it is added, was received with "great laughter." How President Johnson will shake his sides, and impeacher Boutwell his fists, when they read Mr. Chase's remark.

The colored person is becoming disagreeable apparently to the fastidious Radicals about New Albany, Indiana, and the Commercial of that place says: "The negroes in some localities in this County, outside the city, have been notified that they must pack up their goods and leave for some other locality, and if they do not they will be moved."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it promotes the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and thus secures to the whole system the advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus. They are the best aperient in use, a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody; and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a preventive against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is the slight incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that it is unnecessary to publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy, on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton, the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C., on Great and Little Quankey Creeks and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally fine and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage. There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts, in one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an analyzed character of the aromatic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of Schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by counterfeiting meritorious trade names, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however, only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by inebrious humbugs; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and at worse than all, disinterested retailers, afraid of disposing of the genuine contents of his bonded store filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick, for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of his undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of unripe berry of the juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on this subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The annual Charter election for the city officers passed off quietly on yesterday.

The following the result of the election:

FOR MAYOR.

W. D. Haywood,	420
W. H. Harrison,	722

MIDDLE WARD COMMISSIONERS.

Phil. Thiem, Rad.,	149

A. Sorrell,	155
A few scattering—among the rest P. Overby (Rad.) 15.

It will thus be seen that the white Radicals and negroes have elected the entire ticket,—the Mayor and three Commissioners in each Ward. The Democrats and Conservatives had no regular ticket in the field, but a number of worthy gentlemen had announced themselves as candidates, and would have been elected, if there had been any concert of action and if there had not been the most infamous and bare-faced frauds ever yet perpetrated in any election in this city. The frauds, under the manipulation of a set of unprincipled strikers, white and black, were stupendous and unblushing,—apparently not caring for detection. Negroes, in numbers, who had not been in the city five hours, much less ten days, managed to register, and others, who had voted in one Ward, were paid to vote in another. Thus they carried the day, and, after the result was announced, made night hideous with their ululations. And thus the City, like the State—God help both!—"marches" on, under the "new civilization," to bankruptcy and ruin!

THE LEGISLATURE.—It will be seen that but few members of either House were present on yesterday. We think that it is doubtful whether there will be a quorum to-day. Would anybody cry if there never should be?

SUPREME COURT.—This Tribunal convened on yesterday,—all the Judges in attendance.

We learn that the Court will go, this morning, into an election for Clerk, Reporter and Marshal.

The names of gentlemen who have obtained license to practice will be given to-morrow.

IT IS a mistake to suppose that Rev. Solomon Pool, who has "marched" (alongside of Brewer & Co.,) into the Presidency of the University, was ever a Professor in that Institution. He was only an Adjunct and Secretary to the Faculty.

By the way, "Prof." Brewer will be inconsolable, unless he is allowed a negro colleague on the new Faculty. Can't the Executive Committee attend to this?

WHY IT WAS DONE.—It will be remembered that when the Legislature was looking into the matter of the lawless and contemptuous displacement of the Supreme Court from their rooms in the Capitol, by Holden, Menninger & Co., to make way for Buzzard Bay Ashley, the carpet-bag Superintendent of Public Instruction, it was intimated that the difficulty could be compromised by "fixing up" the Executive Mansion for the Court, as the "Governor" had declined living there. Thus the Legislature left the matter. But lo! before the Legislature or the Court meet, the "Governor" sends C. L. Harris in to occupy the building, as a residence, and to keep the Court out!

THE STATE DEBT.—The Governor's paper does not condescend to inform the public why the January interest on the State debt was not paid. Shall we have a communication to the Legislature on the subject?—How soon? And how will the "Governor" explain his official announcement, made a few weeks since, that the interest would be paid? And in whose interest was that announcement made? And how about the bonds, now?

MARCH OF THE "NEW CIVILIZATION."

As faithful chroniclers of the times, we propose to continue to notice the successive steps in the march of the "new civilization," to which we made reference on yesterday.

As elsewhere and heretofore alluded to, Col. C. L. Harris has "marched" into the Mansion set apart by the law for the residence of the Governor and hung up his hat therein—the "Governor" consenting thereto.

On yesterday morning, the Supreme Court, after consultation in the office of the Code Commission, roused, very properly, to meet in the "cock-loft" to which the archives of the Court had been arbitrarily transferred by Farris, the Superintendent of the Capitol, under the direction of the State House officials, and served a notice on the Auditor, Mr. Henderson Adams, and Ashley, the carpet-bag Superintendent of Public Instruction, to vacate the lawful rooms of the Court, now illegally and presumptuously occupied by those two individuals.

The Auditor was not present, but Ashley impertinently refused to give way to the Supreme Court, or any body else,—saying that he (the Pilgrim aforesaid) was there by an act of the Legislature and could only be dispossessed by a similar procedure.

Whereupon, proceeded by their Marshal, the Chief Justice and the four Associate Justices of the Court "marched" to the rooms in question and took possession; when the Marshal opened Court in the usual formal manner.

The Court, shortly thereafter, adjourned, to meet at the same place, this morning, at the usual hour.

We learn that an attachment for contempt will be brought against Ashley, and, also, against Mr. Adams if he shall refuse to vacate the rooms of the Court.

We are pleased to record this action of the Court, in vindication, not simply of its dignity and prerogative, but of the law.—We await further developments with interest, and shall give the public a full account of what transpires.

THE INJUNCTION CASE.

A. J. Galloway et al. vs. Chatham R. R. and Public Treasurer of the State of N. C.

This case came before Judge Watts, according to appointment, yesterday, and after a consultation among the counsel of both parties, the following pro forma agreement was entered into, and submitted to his Honor by Hon. D. G. Fowle:

1st. It is agreed that the cause shall be expedited so as to obtain a decision of the Supreme Court of the State upon the question of the constitutionality of the bonds specified.

2nd. To that end, with the consent of his Honor, Judge Watts, an order may be made by this Court, before whom the motion is now pending, dissolving the injunction heretofore obtained—such order to be pro forma.

3rd. The bond heretofore given by the complainant, upon obtaining the injunction, may be withdrawn, and it is agreed that the complainant shall file a bond in the sum of $10,000, by way of substitution for the one withdrawn.

4th. The complainant may make any amendment of his complaint that may be desired so as to present the question first above stated,—such amendments to be reduced to writing and submitted to the counsel for the defence as soon as may be.

5th. It is also agreed that the Treasurer shall not issue the bonds, in the complaint mentioned and sought to be enjoined, before a decision by the Supreme Court of the point mentioned above; provided that such decision may be had at the term of the Supreme Court now sitting, and if such decision is not had at such session, there is no agreement as to the issuing of such bonds.

D. G. Fowle, R. C. Badger and E. G. Haywood for Complainant.

Will. H. Battle, K. P. Battle, R. H. Battle, Thomas Bragg, B. F. Moore, S. F. Phillips and A. S. Merrimon for Defendant.

The Judge thereupon issued the following order, viz:

AT CHAMBERS,

RALEIGH, Jan. 4, 1869.

A. J. Galloway against Chatham Railroad and the Public Treasurer:

On reading the complaint in the action, and on motion of Plaintiff's counsel, after proof of the service of notice, it is ordered that the injunction granted by me on the 29th. of Dec., 1868, against the above named Defendants, be vacated and dissolved, with costs, to abide the events of the action.

This order is made pro forma, by consent of the counsel.

S. A. WATTS,
Judge Sixth Circuit.

HONORABLE.—One of the most mysterious and unintelligible titles in the language is the word "honorable." If all men are free and equal, that is to say as far as the wisdom of Congress deems advisable, of course, the appellation is surely misplaced in our glorious republic. But now that it is so extensively used, it would be well it some one could but prescribe rules and regulations for its proper application. When does a man become honorable, and who or what makes him so? Zachariah Chandler, for instance, in private, answers to the familiar and mellifluous call of "Zack," but in Congress he is the Hon. Mr. Chandler, M. C.—very honorable. It will probably be said that since we are all children of freedom, with our bright homes in the region of the setting sun, every man has a constitutional right to call himself what he pleases; he can bellow "My name is Norval," or be "ravished with the whistling of a name."—Imagine Butler styling himself Major General of Volunteers, the Hon. Benjamin F. Butler, M. C., LL. D.! To this complexion shall we come at last, unless the absurdity is laughed away. Artemas Ward's English landlord refused to believe that a "party" was as American, because he wrote himself down plain "Miajer" only.—N. Y. World.

The World knows nothing about the perversion of the word "Honorable," and cannot know, unless it shall live for a while under "Reconstruction." That is the most potent Alchymy for transmuting knaves and imbeciles into "honorables," (so called,) that has ever been known or invented.

Dewese and Ragland, and Jim Harris and Cuffee Mayo, and Chicken Stevens and de "archives of gravity and Tourgee, are all "honorables,—Heaven save the mark!

THE CARPET BAG PLUNDERERS IN FLORIDA—ORIGIN OF THE SQUABBLE BETWEEN REED AND GLEASON.—Governor Reed, of Florida, "at the earnest request of leading colored men" in Jacksonville, as we learn from the Florida Union, addressed a public meeting in his own defence last Monday. In his speech, Governor Reed accounts for the "milk in the cocoanut" of the Florida impeachment in part as follows:

"The Legislature had authorized the issue of bonds to the amount of $300,000, and they were anxious to control these bonds. Gleason went to Washington and arranged the following programme with a party there: This party was to take all the bonds at seventy cents; or rather, they were to be pledged to him in advance at that price. Then he was to buy up State scrip at fifty or sixty cents, or as low as he could get it, and pay for the bonds in this scrip. In this way he would actually get the bonds at about thirty cents on the dollar, making an immense profit out of the transaction; and Gleason proposed to me that the bonds should be disposed of in this way, and that the profits should be divided between us. I refused to sanction such a robbery upon the people; and so I must be removed, in order to enable Gleason to get the bonds under his own control, to dispose of for the profit of the ring. And how had I offended Senator Osborn? I had refused to make appointments at his dictation, and to allow him to control the State, regardless of my own judgment; but worse than this, I had blocked one of his schemes for plunder.—Senator Osborn proposed to me that we should obtain from the United States Government the grant of a large tract of land at Pensacola for the State, and that I should then influence the Surveyor-General so that this land might be sold at a mere nominal price to Senator Osborn. I refused to countenance this scheme; and so I must be removed, that a more pliant tool might take my place, and the ring might plunder to its heart's content."

Again we have occasion to notice the good sense of Gen. Grant. Carl Schurz, one of the worst men in this country, is the strongest candidate in competition with Mr. Henderson for the senatorship from Missouri which is to be conferred on some one this winter. Schurz is a consistent and bigoted Radical, the friend of negro suffrage and the enemy of the enfranchisement of the whites. Henderson, too, is a Republican, but he had sense enough and independence enough to vote against the conviction of Mr. Johnson, on the impeachment trial, and is in favor of allowing not only the negroes but the whites of Missouri to vote. As between the two, Gen. Grant is said to prefer Henderson, and to have signified his preference in the most decided manner, having, it is reported, furnished Mr. Henderson with proof of the fact under his own hand. One Washington letter-writer says the General declares that Schurz is an adventurer and carpet-bagger—qualifications which are not supposed to be necessary in a United States Senator outside of the Southern States. Gen. Grant knows Schurz well, and will, we trust, succeed in keeping him out of the Senate.

HOW GEORGIA IS TO BE TREATED.—It is probable that a compromise measure in the nature of a national legislative exposition of the meaning of certain articles and clauses of the Georgia constitution will be passed by Congress. This act will in effect declare that by the true intent and meaning of the fundamental instrument negroes have the right to hold and enjoy all offices of profit and honor in the State, and that this right shall be enforced by the Governor with the power of his negro militia, aided, if necessary, by the bayonets of the Federal Government. As old Mr. Hill and all the State officers were elected before the negro legislators were expelled, and as the election of the present delegation in the House could not be affected by their expulsion, there will be less need of stirring up things—especially as the other Senator is of Democratic persuasion, and easily disposed of a la Senator Thomas, of your State. So I predict that Georgia will not be reconstructed.—Wash. Letter in Balt. Gazette.

DIVISION OF TENNESSEE.—Brownlow, of Tennessee, in his annual message to the Legislature, at its January session, will advocate the division of the State. East Tennessee is said to be united on this question in demanding a separation from the middle and western portions of the State. The Governor is also an editor, and in his Knoxville Whig thus foreshadows the new movement: "East Tennessee will all be a unit for the separation. We will accept, too, the terms. We are ready to go empty-handed. Middle and West Tennessee may have their railroads, public buildings, turnpikes, and only their proportion of the State debt. East Tennessee will assume hers, and ask no more."

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

OF

NEW YORK.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

A GOOD REASON.

By one decisive argument
Tom gained his lovely Kate's consent
To fix the bridal day.
"Why in such haste, dear Tom, to wed?
I shall not change my mind," she said.
"But then," says he, "I may."

"I'll neither tell my age for census or the Sovereign," said the cook most resolutely, to her master, who was preparing for the enumerator.

"Very well, I'll put down sixty-five," was the cool reply.

"Upon my honor, sir, I was only fifty eight last birth day," screamed the cook.

A GEM OF POESY.—The following effusion, said to be the result of a "poetical agony" by a soldier, who sent a young lady a "bokay," while in camp near her home, is eminently satisfactory, so far as it goes, to prove that "none but the brave deserve the fair," and we hope had the desired effect. Here it is:

"Accept this bokay from a feller,
Who oft has heard the cannons beller;
Has listened to the fife a tootin,
And helped to do a heap of shootin,
He has seen the war clouds dark arise,
Like fifty buzzards when they flies,
Who is bigger than his dad
And wants to marry mighty bad."

During the great rush of travel in California, the Panama and San Francisco steamers were always densely crowded. On one occasion, says a correspondent, a party of travelers, bent on the game of "old sledge," used the broad stomach of a very fleshy fellow passenger, asleep on the floor, in lieu of a table. The sleeper snored on for several hours, unconscious of his personal utility, until one of the party became suddenly excited and brought his hand down upon the "table" with fearful emphasis, when the astonished stranger opened his eyes, saw what was going on, and said: "All right, boys—go on with the game; but I would like to turn over."

"Doctor," said an old lady the other day to her family physician, "kin you tell me how it is that some folks is born dumb?" "Why, hem! certainly, madam," replied the doctor, "it is owing to the fact that they came into the world without the power of speech!" "La, me," remarked the old lady; "now just see what it is to have a physic education. I've axed my old man more nor a hundred times that ar same thing, and all that I could ever get out of him was, "kase they is!"

A Connecticut editor fell on an icy sidewalk last week. He did not use "unparliamentary language," as some would have done, bit his lips, rubbed down the bruises, and while a benevolent smile radiated his countenance, remarked: "We don't cherish any ill-will, but for light and entertaining reading matter, recommend to us the obituary of the man who owns this sidewalk."

MR. ABERNETHY.—A lady, who went to consult Dr. Abernethy, began describing her complaint, which is what he very much d'a liked. Among other things she said, "Whenever I lift my arm, it pains me exceedingly." "Why, then, ma'am," answered Mr. A., "you are a great fool for doing so."

An auctioneer, at a late sale of antiquities, put up a helmet, with the following candid observation: "This, ladies and gentlemen, is a helmet of Romulus, the Roman founder, but whether he was a brass or an iron founder, I cannot tell."

A highly educated constable somewhere in the Northwest exposes for sale a roan horse, "or so much thereof as ma bee necessary" to satisfy the judgment.

A poor woman can see more sympathy in a six pence than in streams of tears.

The rose has its thorns, the diamond its specks and the best man his failings.

If you would not have affliction to visit you twice, listen at once to what it teaches.

Most of the shadows that cross our path through life, are caused by our standing in our own light.

He who blackens others, does not whiten himself.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 18th, 1868, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81,927 and dividend, and I hereby surrender all right, title and interest in the same to said Company

JOHN HUTCHINSON,

(signed) Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above, although the party had been insured but six months, yet one half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss.

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but ever, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
